In the master bedroom, the custom bed is upholstered in a Fortuny fabric and dressed with linens by Leontine Linens, and the chaise by Anthony Lawrence-Belfair is upholstered in a Rogers & Goffigon mohair; the walls are covered in a de Gournay silk, the curtains are in a Holland & Sherry wool, and the shades are in a fabric by Chelsea Editions. FACING PAGE: The bed, canopy, and curtains in the daughter's room are in a fabric by Muriel Brandolini, which also sheathes the walls; the lamp is by Christopher Spitzmiller.
