

Chicago Tribune

Trend-spotting: Making a splash with dots

David Syrek

10/5/2011

Hot dots are the print of the season, from clothing to accessories to home decor:

— Runway looks, ranging from Adidas Y-3 and Stella McCartney, featured dot patterns. Stella McCartney's Polka Dot Lucia Dress, $2,155, at stellamccartney.com

— Barneys New York blue dotted umbrella, $140, at barneys.com

— Ompa linen and canvas fabric in stem, sun and fire by Studio Bon Textiles, $105 and $95 a yard, at studiobontextiles.com

— Ball chair, in red with white dots by XL Boom, about $275 at madeindesign.co.uk

— Paola Navone for Richard Ginori collection dotted dessert plate, $37 at elementschicago.com

---

©2011 the Chicago Tribune

Visit the Chicago Tribune at www.chicagotribune.com

Distributed by MCTinformatics.com

---

Photo: CircleKicks, from left: Barneys New York blue dotted umbrella, $140, at barneys.com; a runway look from Adidas Y-3; a runway look from Stella McCartney; Ompa linen and canvas fabric in stem, sun and fire by Studio Bon Textiles, $105 and $95 a yard, at studiobontextiles.com; Ball chair, in red with white dots by XL Boom, about $275 at madeindesign.co.uk; Paola Navone for Richard Ginori collection dotted dessert plate, $37 at elementschicago.com. (Photo illustration by Chicago Tribune/MCT)