SWING TIME

Call it the modern swing set. Chairloom's custom seats—which you may have already spotted this summer dangling on the verandas of the most stylish Shore houses—look as if they could hold court in a formal living room. But splashy outdoor fabrics and thick rope suspension mean they're porch-perfect. And, dare we say it, much more chic than the ol' tire swing. From $1,650 at Chairloom, Ardmore.
